PRESS RELEASE

On 8/21/2016 at about 12:59 am, the above two subjects entered the Exxon Tiger Mart located at 100 Harris Ave in Red Oak. The suspects appear to be a hispanic male and a black male. The hispanic male subject brandishes a machete and demands the clerk open the register. The hispanic male jumped onto the counter and removed cash from the register. The black male stole several cigarettes and lighters. The suspects were last seen running south from the store. The hispanic male has a tattoo on his left hand and appears to have tattoos behind his left ear and the back of his head. The same suspects committed another aggravated robbery a week earlier at the same Exxon in Red Oak on 8/14/16 at 3:32 AM. The Hispanic male subject brandished a sawed off rifle during this aggravated robbery.

The same black male suspect wearing the same clothes brandishes the machete and commits an aggravated robbery at the 7-11 in Grand Prairie on 8/18/16 at 2:21 AM. The same black male suspect wearing the same clothes brandishes the machete and commits an aggravated robbery at the Shell station in Duncanville on 8/16/16 at 5:35 PM. The video of offenses can be viewed at <https://youtu.be/8bR5iWQyveU>

The above individuals are suspects in multiple aggravated robberies across the metroplex, please contact your local police department if located. The Red Oak Police Department asks anyone with information about any of these offenses or the identities of the suspects, contact Detective Garcia of the Red Oak Police Department at 469-218-7702 or AGarcia@redoaktx.org.
