PRESS RELEASE

On June 14, 2018 at around 20:42 hours, Red Oak Police Department personnel were dispatched to the 100 block of Stainback Court in reference to an assault. Upon arrival, officers made contact with the reporting person that was holding his eye and stated that he needed an ambulance because he was in pain. Officers observed that the reporting person's right eye was red and purple. The reporting person stated that he had been assaulted by his neighbor and wanted to press charges. The reporting person stated that he was walking down the fence line separating his father's property from the next door neighbors because his father was flying his drone at the rear of their residence. The reporting person alleged that the neighbor exited their residence and ordered the reporting person to get off his property. The reporting person alleged that the neighbor fired a warning shot in the ground in between the reporting person and the neighbor. The neighbor allegedly continued pointing the gun at the reporting person and allegedly fired another round as he was ordering the reporting person off of the property. The reporting person stated that he continued towards his father at the rear of the residence as the neighbor allegedly continued to point the firearm at him and allegedly threatened to shoot him. The reporting person stated that the neighbor threw the gun down, ran at him and hit him five times in the head and face. A witness at the scene corroborated the reporting person's allegations and the defendant admitted to discharging a round into the ground and running towards the reporting person and punching him in the face.

On June 14, 2018 at approximately 21:01 hours, the Red Oak Police Department placed Ferrazzoli, Dean Carlo W/M (25 years of age) of Red Oak under arrest for Aggravated Assault with a deadly weapon ($200,000 Bond) and Assault causing bodily injury ($5,000 Bond). The defendant was transported to the Red Oak City Jail and subsequently arraigned on the offenses. The defendant is currently being held in the Ellis County Jail.
